Direction : Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow (Question Nos. 27 to 30). Your answers to these questions should be based on the passage only.

Passage

Happy is the man who acquires the habit of reading when he is young. He has secured a life-long source of pleasure, instruction and inspiration. So long as he has his beloved books, he need never feel lonely. He always has a pleasant occupation of leisure moments, so that he need never feel bored. He is the possessor of wealth more precious than gold. Ruskin calls books "King's Treasure" – treasuries filled, not with gold and silver and precious stones, but with riches much more valuable than these-knowledge, noble thoughts and high ideals. Poor indeed is the man who does not read, and empty is his life.

27. Attaining the habit of reading books at the early age, helps a man to

- (1) feel lucky for having possessed that habit ✓
(2) become famous ✓
(3) gain many good things which stay with him permanently ✓
(4) lead his life undisturbed ✓

28. The person possessing books will not feel lonely because he can
- (1) always happily indulge in reading at his free time ✓
 - (2) understand life better ✓
 - (3) always escape from reality ✓
 - (4) have the company of his books ✓

29. Books are the real treasure of a King, as they are filled with

- (1) gold and silver ✓
- (2) precious stones ✓
- (3) valuable things ✓
- (4) noble thoughts and ideals ✓

30. Pick the word that does not mean 'leisure'
